PUBLICATIONS OF THE DROPSIE COLLEGE

A VOLUME OF
THE BOOK OF PRECEPTS

By HEFEŞ B. YAŞLIAH

EDITED FROM AN ARABIC MS. IN THE LIBRARY OF THE
DROPSIE COLLEGE, TRANSLATED INTO HEBREW
AND PROVIDED WITH CRITICAL NOTES
AND AN INTRODUCTION

By B. HALPER, M.A., PH.D.

278 pages. Cloth bound. Price $2.00 post paid.

THIS volume represents the first codification of talmudic laws in Arabic. It is a store-house of Halakah, philology and philosophy as it was understood at the beginning of the period of Jewish-Arabic literary activity.

Dr. Hartwig Hirschfeld, of Jews' College, London, and of the University of London, in reviewing the book in the Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society, says: 'Dr. Halper's introduction is thorough and instructive, his notes are ample and clear up most of the difficulties in a satisfactory manner. . . . The work is an eloquent testimony to his erudition both in Arabic and Rabbinics, and its elegant get-up does great credit to the author as well as to the institution under whose auspices it was published.'

PROLEGOMENA TO A GREEK-HEBREW
AND HEBREW-GREEK INDEX
TO AQUILA

By JOSEPH REIDER, PH.D.

160 pages. Cloth bound. Price $1.50 post paid.

THIS is the first thorough treatment of Aquila's Greek translation of the Bible, so indispensable to biblical exegesis. Next to the Septuagint the Aquila version is the most important witness of the original text of the Bible as it existed during the early part of the second century. While articles and notes had been written heretofore dealing with some special phases of this interesting version, this is the first attempt to deal comprehensively and exhaustively with every phase of it—grammatical and lexical, textual and exegetical. Moreover, in compiling this material, not only the old but also all the new fragments of the latest Genizah finds have been consulted.
